DAVIDSON, Charles (Mark)

My name is Mark Davidson and I have a keen interest in making a difference and adding value to Perth City council. Being a family man, I look forward to enhancing Perth to reinvigorate the city centre into a family welcoming location which also attracts business and private investment. I currently work in the mining services sector and have had extensive experience in business management and sales. From early 2011 I also worked in various locations through Africa mainly in the resources sector returning to Australia in 2019. My formal qualifications are in business and marketing along with earlier studies in chemistry. I look forward to working with you to reinvigorate Perth city into vibrant and safe hub for family activities. A place for great experiences and to encourage business and investment in the city.
