SMITH, Aimee

I am a climate change policy adviser who is passionate about sustainable cities, with a background in the performing arts.

I believe our city should have greener, pedestrian and cycle-friendly streets; more efficient and accessible public transport; and take leadership in addressing climate change. Our city should have bustling small businesses, nestled amongst vibrant, accessible public spaces where everyone feels welcome and arts and culture are celebrated. Nyoongar people should have a leadership role in our city's future and local businesses should have the support they need to thrive. As a mother of two young girls I know the value of providing essential services, like daycare centres and compassionate solutions for those sleeping rough.

I will champion a transparent and independent local government that actively consults with the community. If elected, I'll work with you to ensure sustainability, equality, and creativity are integral parts of our city.
