ZEMPILAS, Basil

Let's reboot Perth's heart.

It's time to make Perth a safer, cleaner and friendlier people focussed city. That's my absolute priority.

My parents taught me to work hard, use common sense and to do the right thing – always.

If elected, that's what I'll do and that's how I'll lead the City of Perth.

I want us all to be proud of our city again.

As you cast your vote, please consider – who do you know and who do you trust?

Who do you trust to keep the pressure on for 200 extra police to make our city safe?

Who do you trust with a plan to partner with Beddown.org.au to turn our city carparks into safe places for people who are homeless to put a roof over their head at night?

And who do you trust to get in and get the job done with action not words?
