

Winter Fest Show Descriptions

Hey Presto

A magician who has been entertaining audiences with comedy magic and rapid balloon sculptures for the past 15 years. His warm, personal manner is why he was chosen as one of the WA Clown Doctors in 2000, and he is still sometimes found prescribing magical fun at PMH children's hospital.

Magnus' Explosion Laboratory**

What do you get if you add a human Berocca host to a laboratory full of science experiments? An explosively good time!

Join effervescent Magnus Danger Magnus for a safe and interactive exploration of some favourite STEM concepts. Inspired by his passion for science, and a desire to impart that love of STEM to his preschool-aged daughter, Magnus created EXPLOSION LABORATORY. Through astounding demonstrations and (supervised, safe) interactive experiments, MAGNUS' EXPLOSION LAB. will teach basic principles of physics, chemistry and electromagnetism. 2019 Fringe Festival – Joint WA Winner, Children's Event Award.

**Selected shows will include an Auslan interpreting, and closed captioning.

The Leaping Lillies

Fun, acrobatic troupe performing balancing and gymnastic skills. Featuring rope expert.

The Leaping Lillies are three hopeless showoffs while getting up to all the best sort of mischief on stage. Join the team for circus antics and old-fashioned mischief where anything could happen. Featuring acrobatics, manipulation, and daring acts. Starring 3 of Perth's most loved children's performers; Miss Gail Force, The Cat's Meow and Miss Red. These 3 unlikely friends band together to have another brilliant adventure. Suitable for 3 years and up.

*Audio Describing and a Tactile Tour prior to the show can be offered on Saturday 13 and Sunday 21 July, bookings must be made through DADAA.

Libby Hammer presents The Adventures of Charlie, Dizzy and Stella

A series of poems penned by local playwright Melanie Bainbridge, featuring three adorable and plucky characters based on the names of famous jazz musicians and songs. The musical score is by Libby Hammer, and features excerpts of standard jazz melodies that permeate the story in the style of Prokofiev's Peter And The Wolf. As well as featuring projected story illustrations by Libby's daughter Genevieve, this show provides opportunities for children to echo the simple melodies while following along on an exciting adventure by our jazzy crew of three.

The Chipolatas

Established in 1992, The Chipolatas present unique performances incorporating high-octane circus skills, music, theatre and dance. Blending accordion and acoustic rhythms with hip-hop and street style, our performances and inspiration are embedded in worldwide culture. This is the essence of our unique identity; mixing traditional roots with contemporary stylings.

*Audio Describing can be offered at the shows on Wednesday 17 and Sunday 21 July, bookings must be made through DADAA.

**Please note - This show features some loud noises

Beeswax & Bottlecaps presents Who Nose? (A clowning adventure)

classical non-speaking theatrical clowning show with elements of circus, acrobatics and slapstick. This show focuses on the imagination and wonderment.

Two bright red-nosed charismatic clowns take the stage in a playful romp focusing on adventure and discovery. As if they are looking at the world for the very first time, these clowns weave comedy, creativity and a touch of circus together in a wild adventure. Children of all ages and languages can discover the extraordinary in this silent comedy as everyday objects transform into wondrous feats of the imagination.

*Audio Describing can be offered at the shows on Wednesday 10 and Saturday 13.
