Jennifer Merrigan from Have a Go News will update you on the news, events and competitions in this month's issue.

Champagne & Boots are a trio of talents who met over bubbles and bonded through music. They would love to have you accompany them on a musical journey as they perform music drawn from their personal experiences. Gail, Vanessa and Maryanne blend vocals, guitar and ukulele to showcase an uplifting selection of folk, country and contemporary songs. Joining in is optional – toe-tapping is unavoidable.

19th October 2021- Compere: Bernard Carney

Jay Weston In our annual remembering Holly show, Jay Weston will provide a beautiful entertainment drawn from Italian Arias to Musical Theatre, Romantic Love Songs and Popular Ballads. His shows have included opening for Sir Cliff Richard and singing for Her Majesty the Queen at the Perth Foreshore. We are thrilled he can join us again this year.

26th October 2021- Compere: Bernard Carney

Michelle Reynolds, the City of Perth CEO will chat about the running of a big city, matters of interest to seniors, and answer a few of your questions.

Robert Graham is an award-winning songwriter, singer and pianist, recently returned to Perth after 20 years in Canada. He will perform a selection of wonderful songs that have stood the test of time as well as some of his original compositions.
